- (xvi) Any instance/act detrimental to the image/reputation of the group.
- (xvii) Any other form of improper action or conduct.
- (xviii) Deliberate concealment/attempts to conceal information relating to any of the above.

5. ROLE OF WHISTLE BLOWER:

The Whistleblowers role is that of a reporting party with reliable information. They are not required or expected to act as investigators or finders of facts, nor would they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case.

Whistleblowers should not act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor do they have a right to participate in any investigative activities Committee or the Investigators.

- (i) Report upon notice or being aware of, immediately to the Ethics Officer of any improper practice, unethical behaviour and/or actual or suspected fraud etc.

- (ii) Co-operate with investigating authorities, maintain full confidentiality.
- (iii) Seek full protection from retaliation/retribution. However, this does not extend to immunity for own involvement in the matters that are subject of investigation.
- (iv) In exceptional cases, where the whistle blower is not satisfied with the outcome of the investigation carried out by Investigator(s), he or she can make a direct appeal to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

6. RECEIPT AND DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED DISCLOSURE:

- (i) All Protected Disclosures or complaints should be reported by the Whistleblowers as soon as possible after the matter comes to light. Undue delay could make it difficult or impossible to investigate.
- (ii) Protected Disclosures should preferably be reported in writing so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised and should either be typed or written in a legible handwriting in English, Hindi or in the regional language of the place of employment of the Whistleblower.
- (iii) The Protected Disclosure should be forwarded under a covering letter which shall bear the identity of the Whistleblower. The Ethics Officer or the Chairman of the Audit Committee, as the case may be shall detach the covering letter and forward only the Protected Disclosure to the Investigators for investigation.
- (iv) Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion, and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern and the urgency of a preliminary investigative procedure.
- (v) The Protected Disclosure to be submitted to the Whistleblower should cover the following aspects to the extent possible:
 - a. Nature of the instance being reported and whether it in line with Section 4 of the Policy.
 - b. Nature of the actual deviation/violation/allegations.
 - c. When and where did the instance occur and how often.
 - d. How was the violation conducted (the manner/or act)?
 - e. Who are the persons involved and did they act alone or with others?

- f. Is there any evidence to support the instance or is it a mere suspicion?
 - g. Any supporting documents available to authenticate the allegations?
 - h. Details of any witnesses or those who can corroborate the allegations.
 - i. Duly signed by the Whistleblower.

7. EXCLUSION:

Anonymous Complaints: Complainants must provide their name and contact details with each complaint. Investigations of the complaints are not possible unless the source of information is identified especially since such source is critical for reporting back. Hence, complaints received anonymously will not be investigated, however, that does not preclude the Chairman of the Audit Committee to initiate the investigation independently considering the seriousness of the issue raised and/or the extent of evidence provided.

Reporting of matters of personal nature, either personal grievances (for which there is a separate mechanism) or matters regarding other person(s), which are in no way connected to the ethical wellbeing of the Organization.

8. INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE:

- (i) All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will be thoroughly investigated by the Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company who will investigate / oversee the investigations under the authorization of the Audit Committee. If any Member of the Audit Committee has a conflict of interest in any given case, then he/she should recuse himself/herself and the other members of the Audit Committee should deal with the matter on hand.
- (ii) The Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee may at its discretion, consider involving any Investigators for the purpose of investigation.
- (iii) The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The outcome of the investigation may not support the conclusion of the Whistleblower that an improper or unethical act was committed.
- (iv) The identity of a Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
- (v) Subjects will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
- (vi) Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with the Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
- (vii) Subjects have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Ethics Officer / Investigators and/or members of the Audit Committee and/or the Whistleblower. Subjects shall be free at any time to engage counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings.
- (viii) Subjects have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subjects.

- (ix) Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- (x) Subjects have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.
- (xi) The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure

9. PROTECTION TO WHISTLE BLOWER:

A genuine whistle blower is protected from any damage to his/her career, name or reputation.

- (i) Harassment or victimization of the whistle blower will not be tolerated and could constitute sufficient grounds for disciplinary action including dismissal of the Employee, causing such harassment.
- (ii) Every effort will be made to protect the identity of the Subject and the Whistle Blower to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
- (iii) Whistleblowers are encouraged to immediately report any acts of retribution that have happened to them, due to the fact that they made a disclosure.
- (iv) Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.
- (v) While it will be ensured that genuine whistle blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as stated above, any abuse/misuse of this protection may warrant disciplinary action by the Ethics Officer or the Chairman of Audit Committee. In case of evidence coming up during investigation leading to any deliberate framing up exercise on the part of whistle blower, the dignity of victim shall be restored alongside punishment to the misleading whistle blower.

10. REPORTING:

The Ethics Officer shall submit a report to the Audit Committee on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him/her since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any.

11. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS:

All Protected Disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of investigation relating thereto shall be retained by the Company for a minimum period of seven years.

12. AMENDMENT:

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is notified to the Employees and Directors in writing.

13. DECISION :

If an investigation leads the Chairman of the Audit Committee to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, Chairman of the Audit Committee shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as the Chairman of the Audit Committee deems fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures
